From the Pastor's heart

It had been a long and draining morning. Zoom meetings had gone long, and lots of things had come up unexpectedly during an already busy time. The pressures had gotten the best of me, and I'd managed to nurse a grumpy mood, amplified by being hungry—because of the aforementioned long Zoom meetings.

So I took myself to Wendy's to grab a late lunch. Pulling in, I saw a car with purple decals on the side, the trademark fashion of the one and only Vivian Dobbin. In my grumpy and hungry mood, I wasn't sure that I was fit to be social, but I couldn't resist at least going and hugging her.

Turns out we were both just getting there, and instead of sitting in the car and eating alone, as I had planned, we sat and had a lovely lunch together. Vivian even generously shared her dessert with me. Somewhere between the hug hello and hug goodbye, the grumpiness had left me, and in its place was the comfort of having been seen and loved.

I thought I wanted to be alone and grumpy. My plan was to have my lunch and then return to work, but instead, God pulled me out of my grumpiness for the day and invited me to look up.

To look up and see His wonderful world, which has unexpected surprises. To look up and see that there is a community around us when we need one. To look up and see Him reflected in Vivian's sparkling eyes and hear Him in her joyful laugh.

Have you been hiding? Hoping that someone would see you as you try to be invisible? Or is it perhaps time to let God interrupt your plans? Is it time to make the effort for community? To get out of the car and ask for a hug? Is it time to look up and be willing to see Him in someone else?

~ from Pastor Massiel's heart

HAPPY BIRTHDAY Today, we send special birthday wishes to Marj Dubuc, Patricia Ng, Tennyson Samraj, Jeff Tataryn, and Rita St. George Washington.

Looking ahead to next week, we celebrate with Craig and Sandy Gerst, Sydney Trenchuk, Dahlia Emerson, Ava Carter and Adam Kiš. May you feel God's love, joy, and peace throughout the year ahead!

THE SPIRIT OF SERVICE With the first day of summer near, our cul-de-sac held a "Volunteer Shrub Clean-up Day" to refresh the old mulch with new red cedar. What inspires people to serve—regardless of age or status—is a love for others and a willingness to help. Acts of kindness uplift both those who receive and those who give. As Matthew 25:40 says, "When you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me." ~ Your Health Ministry Team

ANNUAL PENNY CARNIVAL – VOLUNTEERS NEEDED Our 16th Annual Penny Carnival will take place on the south lawn of the Lacombe Memorial Centre on Sunday, July 13, from 1:00–3:30 PM. If you enjoy working with young children and love seeing them have fun, please consider volunteering to help with this event. To sign up, contact Ron Schafer at 403-391-6909 or rschafer@burmanu.ca. This has been a wonderful opportunity for our church to connect with the community—but this year, the event is at risk of cancellation due to a shortage of volunteers.
