From the Pastor's heart

A recent visit to Banff and Canmore offered breathtaking views of the mountains and their majestic surroundings. Standing in such beauty, I was reminded of how great our God is—the Creator of the universe who simply spoke these wonders into existence. As Isaiah 66:1 declares, “Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool”—a powerful image of His greatness and sovereignty.

Yet, as awe-inspiring as these landscapes are, Scripture reminds us that we—humanity—are the crown glory of His creation (Is 62:3). That means we are loved, chosen, and deeply valued. God formed us with intention and purpose, not just as part of creation, but as bearers of His image. While the mountains declare His glory, our lives are meant to reflect His love. This truth gives me hope and purpose—not just to admire His creation, but to stand in awe that He created me to walk with Him.

Switching gears: I also want to share about our summer series, The Journey. This series focuses on personal ministry, taking a cue from Andrew, one of Jesus’ disciples. Andrew didn’t draw crowds—he brought individuals to Jesus. He invited his brother Peter, brought the boy with the loaves and fish, and even introduced Greeks to Jesus, reaching beyond cultural boundaries. His ministry was simple and personal.

This summer, we invite you to follow his example in three simple steps: Pray, Invite, and Have Lunch. Begin by praying for someone God places on your heart. Then invite them to join you for a Sabbath where we’ll share a simple, Christ-centered message. Afterward, share a meal together and continue the conversation. With the whole summer ahead, there’s plenty of time to choose a Sabbath that works for both of you. Let’s walk this journey together, one personal invitation at a time.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES go to David Burak, Hunter Kay, Bernie Leavitt, Rayeden McLeod, Amy McNeill, Ron Schafer, and Katie Van Scheik as they celebrate their special day next week. Wishing each of you joy, blessings, and a wonderful year ahead!

DID YOU EVER WONDER what causes “foot cramps”? You’re sitting on the sofa with your feet up on the ottoman, and suddenly your big toe or the arch of your foot wrenches into a painful cramp. It’s fairly common and can occur at any time — even in the middle of the night!

Here are some possible causes:

- Age and lack of exercise
- Not enough water and poor hydration
- Inadequate electrolytes — coconut water is high in electrolytes and minerals, and low in sugar
- Shoes that are too tight, too loose, or too high can cause overuse of foot muscles and are not your feet’s friends! Leave your stiletto heels in the closet — your feet will thank you.

“Dear friend, I pray that you may enjoy good health...” — 3 John 2
